NATION WIDE 'DRYS'
HEARD BY SENATORS

(By Latest Mail)
WASHINGTON.—Nation-wide prohibition under an amendment to the federal constitution was advocated before the senate judiciary committee by prominent figures in the anti-saloon movement throughout the country. No action will be taken by the committee pending further hearings.

REPRESENTATIVES OF MANY NATIONS TO FEAST AT 'Y'

Elaborate Plans on Foot for Annual Meeting of Members of Association May 5

"Enthusiasm" said some genius or other, is a great propelling force for good, even though its channels are not always straight.

However, the enthusiasm which is being shown by the chairmen of the various state delegations expected at the annual dinner of the Y. M. C. A., a week from this evening, is leading straight to one of the most enjoyable and unique banquets which has been given in Honolulu for many years. Still, a little more of the advance enthusiasm on the part of those who will eat, or expect to eat, of that champagne fish chowder on the evening of May 5, would help those who are working to make the affair the success it deserves. It should be a simple matter, says the general chairman, for them to notify their state chairman and get their tickets in advance and so avoid the crush at the last moment.

Incidentally, the Hawaiian delegation, under the leadership of George R. Carter, is showing an extra sport of enthusiasm which undoubtedly will result in impressing everybody with the fact that it takes some real hard work to get ahead of the Old Guard. But then Gen. John H. Soper is one of the delegation which will represent England and Ireland. General Soper already has laid out his plan of campaign and began yesterday the mobilization of his forces, and all volunteers under the Union Jack should fall into line and help him win out for a fine showing with a little extra of that enthusiasm.

As usual the Ad club comes to the front and President W. R. Farrington has named H. L. Strange as the representative of the club at the annual dinner. The announcement was made to Chairman George G. Guild, of the invitation committee, yesterday in a typical Ad club letter. At the same time Mr. Farrington announced that as the Merchants' association was going out of existence this week he would not name a representative from that organization.

Scotland will be on deck May 5 with a combination appetite for 10 men. There will be no "thin red lines" unless it is between the lips, but the lines will be thinner than they ought to be with all the lads from Bonnie Scotland who are making Honolulu their home, unless those who have so far failed to notify S. J. C. Todd, of the Bishop bank, chairman of the Scottish delegation, do so and announce they will be present. It will be one of their only chances to see masses of real heather from the Highlands, which will be used in the table decoration. Ten "Scots wha hae w' Wallace bled" to the tune of 50 cents each have so far signified their intention to be present. There should be 20 at least.

Ten Hawaiian born Chinese have notified Kim Tong Ho, chairman of this delegation, that they will be present. What is troubling these progressive young men just now is the form of their special table decoration. An old time pagan dragon does not appeal to them, although they believe that the fish chowder would appeal to the dragon. They want something progressive, like a set of teeth, or something modern and artistic. However, they are getting their heads together and, dragon or no dragon, propose to show Missouri. Kim Tong Ho, who is teller in the First National bank, will be glad to hear from more of the Y. M. C. A. Chinese members.

General Secretary Paul Super, of the Y. M. C. A., is one of the busiest men these days in the Paradise of the Pacific, or any other paradise. With the assistance of his committee he is making arrangements to break all records from a diner's point of view, in the big games hall on May 5. The scheme of decoration will be a new one, so will be the seating system. Another thing will be the marshalling of hosts, also the guests, for the dinner. It will remind one of the grand march for a two-step, only there will be more two-steps. And the "boys" of Hawaii will be there in their short sleeves with ice around their necks, collars also, maybe.

By the way, if any natives of Canada who claim relationship to "Our Lady of the Snows" happen to have any maple leaves, notify R. A. Robbins.

Chairman A. L. Mackaye, of the state delegation committee, is anxious to have the various state chairmen and their aides or vice chairmen initial all the tickets they give out. A complete and revised list of the state chairmen at this time is as follows:

Hawaii, George R. Carter; New York, W. R. Gaynor; New Jersey and Delaware, Rev. Frank Scudder; Pennsylvania, K. B. Barnes; Ohio, G. H. Buttloff; Indiana, John Effinger; Illinois, Dr. S. D. Barnes; Michigan, A. C. Wheeler; Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island and Connecticut, Ed. Toussie; Massachusetts, C. T. Flitts; Tennessee, R. H. Trent; Minnesota, R. M. Cross; Wisconsin, Otto Bierbach; Missouri, J. H. Patrick; Iowa, Jess Dutot; Kansas, Percy L. Horne; Colorado, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Wyoming, Montana, North Dakota and Texas, John Nelson; California, Benjamin L. Marx; Oregon, Ed. Dekum; Washington, C. H. Medcalf; Canada, R. A. Robbins; England and Ireland, Gen. J. H. Soper; Scotland, S. J. C. Todd; Germany, Norway, Russia, Roumania, Austria and Switzerland, George Stein; New Zealand and Australia, C. F. Maxwell; China, Kim Tong Ho; Virginia, C. C. Biting; Georgia, South Carolina and other Southern States, Dr. A. F. Jackson.

MEETING TO DISCUSS ROAD FRONTAGE TAX

A public meeting will be held by the Oahu Central Improvement Committee at 7:30 o'clock this evening, at the rooms of the Merchants' Association, Alexander Young Hotel. Its purpose is to hear and consider the report of the special committee on the road frontage tax laws. Important data gathered by members of the committee will be presented, and the meeting will likely be asked to give some expression of opinion on methods of carrying out the laws in question. All citizens taking an interest in the subject are invited to be present.

Some people are not on speaking terms with their duty.

Tickets can be secured from the chairmen, or at the desk at the Y. M. C. A. building, where notice that you, Mr. Man, will attend can also be left, as well as your money.

LOCAL WHARVES ARE FULLY EQUIPPED FOR FIGHTING FIRE

With the installation of seven fire hydrants and eight fresh water hydrants for the use of fire engines, Honolulu's waterfront now is amply equipped to handle any conflagration which might occur on any local wharf or pier. In a communication read at the meeting of the Board of Harbor Commissioners this morning, F. G. Kirchhoff, engineer for the public works department, reports that the work of installing further fire-fighting apparatus has been completed.

Fire hydrants have been installed along the waterfront at the following points:

Ala Moana, mauka side, corner Kakaako street; Ala Moana, mauka side, 200 feet Waikiki of Richards street; Nuuanu street, Waikiki side, corner of Queen street; Queen street, makai side, corner Iwilei road; Queen street, makai side, 200 feet Ewa of the Nuuanu stream; road to pier 16, Ewa side, opposite entrance to pier 15. These hydrants now are in service and ready for instant use.

Fresh water hydrants for the use of fire engines have been installed along the harbor front as follows:

Pier 6, mauka-Ewa corner, outside shed; pier 7, mauka-Waikiki corner, outside shed; pier 12, mauka-Waikiki corner, outside fence; pier 12, mauka-Ewa corner, outside shed; pier 13,
